WELCOME!

Welcome to the FSA Board of Directors! You are now part of the governance body of the BCIT Faculty & Staff Association (BCITFSA or FSA). You have been elected by your peers to represent the collective interests of the entire FSA membership.

You are part of a governing body that is itself a collective group that exists to:

- Execute legal and fiduciary duties
- Establish the strategic direction, budget, and policies of the FSA
- Employ a staff team to implement the strategic direction, budget, and policies of the FSA
- Monitor and evaluate outcomes towards advancing the vision and mission

THIS MANUAL

The BCITFSA Board Governance Manual is intended as part of your board orientation as well as a tool for your ongoing learning as a board member. It compliments other existing documents that govern the FSA (e.g. constitution, by-laws, etc.) as well as other training and development (e.g. workshops, reading materials, etc.) that may be provided by the FSA to its Board.

As a board member you are expected to read this manual in full and to refer to it as needed as you act in your capacity as a Director of the BCITFSA.

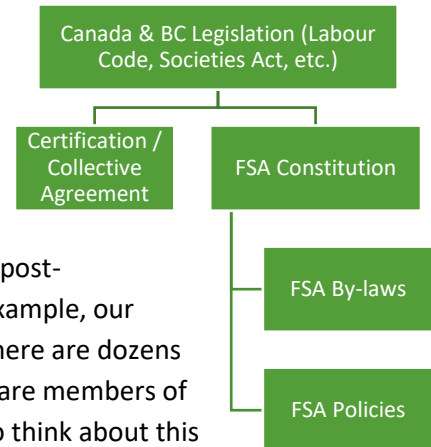

This manual is intended to be dynamic and flexible for your learning needs. It should be reviewed and updated regularly to ensure it remains current. Please let us know if you notice anything that needs updating!

WHO ARE WE?

The BCITFSA is both a trade union under BC Labour Relations Code and a society under the BC Societies Act. Both pieces of provincial legislation result in certain obligations for directors. These requirements and how they apply to the FSA in particular are reflected in the Constitutional statements (Section 1.1 of the FSA Policy Manual) and in the Mission Statement (Section 1.3).

The FSA is also a faculty association. Faculty associations are common in post-secondary institutions and each one is different in its composition. For example, our association includes both faculty and staff, hence 'FSA' instead of 'FA'. There are dozens of these associations in Canada and the majority, including the BCITFSA, are members of a national body, covered in Affiliations in this manual. It can be helpful to think about this organization as a professional association for our members' work as post-secondary educators and workers.

The FSA's board of director's accountabilities flow from our formation under both the BC Labour Relations Code and BC Societies Act along with other relevant legislation. The role of the FSA board of directors is to govern the FSA, not to manage BCIT's operations.

SECTION 1: ORIENTATION

FSA BOARD GOVERNANCE

FSA Board Composition and Terms of Office

The composition of the FSA Board of Directors and associated terms of office are outlined in the FSA's by-laws. There are currently the following positions on the board:

- President
- Vice President
- Treasurer
- Two (2) Directors, Associate Members
- Five (5) Directors-at-Large
- Executive Director (ex-officio)

The FSA Associate Executive Director (AED) is a non-voting participant in board meetings as part of the FSA management team and to fulfill duties of the board secretary that have been delegated to this role.

The President and Vice President are elected by the general membership in even-numbered years (e.g. 2020) and the remaining Directors, including the Treasurer, are elected in odd-numbered years (e.g. 2021). Terms are two years, renewable.

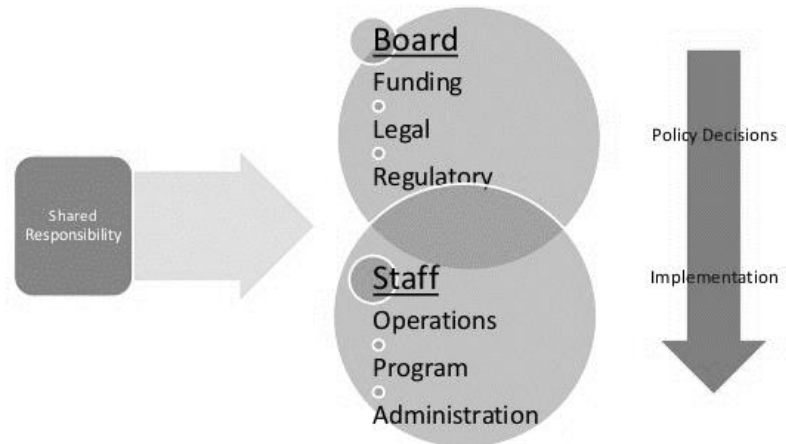

Note that 'board member' and 'Director' are often used interchangeably.

BOARD GOVERNANCE MODEL

The BCIT Faculty and Staff Association applies a results-based governance model in which the Board of Directors represents members by setting a clear direction for the organization in the following ways:

- By determining Association positions on key issues,
- By determining strategic priorities and organizational structure, and
- By providing oversight of the Association's finances, legal standing, ethics, and management.

The Board of Directors relies on staff to execute operational decisions and functions. The Executive Director, President, and occasionally other members of the Board to prepare policy directions and board-related policy and represent the interests of the membership as a whole. Operational management is provided by the Executive Director and the Associate Executive Director. As required, committees or working groups are used to address key issues in depth.

FSA VISION, MISSION, VALUES, AND COMMITMENTS

The FSA's "DNA" is Representation, Negotiation, Advocacy (RNA). This underpins all of our work. The vision, mission, values, and commitments capture why the FSA exists, what we aspire to achieve, and how we want to conduct ourselves. These should be revisited by the FSA on a regular basis to ensure continued relevance. A strong vision, mission, and set of values, while they should be reviewed regularly, should endure. A strategic plan (covered in the next section) will change more often.

FSA Vision

A dynamic and supportive educational community.

FSA Mission

Excellent working conditions for all members through representation, negotiation, and advocacy.

FSA Values

- Integrity: We are transparent and accountable in our decisions and actions.
- Solidarity: We stand together to protect our rights and achieve collective change.
- Empowerment: We equip our members to understand and advocate for their rights.
- Equity: We recognize diversity and pursue inclusion and justice for all members.

A vision answers the question: Why does this organization exist? It is a statement of what is possible, a picture of the future we want to create.

What does this organization do? It is the organization's purpose; what it will do to bring the vision to reality.

An organization's values are important in directing 'how' we do our work.

2021-26 Strategic Goals:

- Identifying and working to address inequities in different FSA job classifications;
- Ensuring members have a voice in defining future working conditions;
- Ensuring members and Departments understand their rights and can exercise them; and
- Enhancing member engagement, managing member expectations, and ensuring exemplary service.

FSA CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS

An organization's constitution and by-laws are two of its binding documents. Along with other relevant legislation (see Section 2) these two documents are fundamental in executing your duties.

All FSA Directors should be familiar with the FSA constitution and by-laws. These can be found on the FSA's website: www.bcitfsa.ca/about/fsa-policies

FSA POLICIES

While there is no expectation that FSA Directors will memorize the contents of the FSA's policies, it is incumbent upon each Director to be aware of the areas of policy that exist for the FSA and to understand the distinction between FSA policies and those of BCIT.

The FSA has a policy (1.5.10) on Policy Development and current practice is to assign a 'policy trustee' from the Board of Directors to be responsible for bring forward policies for consideration, for review, or for recommendation to rescind.

The board has responsibility for governance policies and general policy direction. The Executive Director, and staff, are responsible for operational policy and implementing any other policies/policy direction from the Board.

FSA governance policies can be found on the website: www.bcitfsa.ca/about/fsa-policies

FSA/BCIT COLLECTIVE AGREEMENT

The members of the FSA are covered by the contractual agreements between BCIT and the FSA, contained in a collective agreement (CA) and a series of agreements called "memoranda of agreements", also known colloquially as Collective Agreement Memags or CA Memags.

In this agreement, BCIT is the 'Employer' and the FSA is the 'Union'. The board of directors appoints a Chief Negotiator for each round of bargaining; historically, the FSA Executive Director has typically been the lead, but in the last two rounds of bargaining, a member was appointed as Chief Negotiator with the Executive Director as primary support.

This agreement is negotiated, or bargained, in regular iterations – commonly in three-year cycles. The current CA can be found on our website: www.bcitfsa.ca/member-resources/collective-agreements-memags

FSA/CUPE COLLECTIVE AGREEMENT

The Executive Director and Associate Executive Director, who are exempt, are covered under contractual agreements. All other staff of the FSA are unionized and thereby covered by a collective agreement (CA) between the FSA and the Canadian Union of Public Employees (CUPE), Local 1004; commonly referred to as "CUPE ten-oh-four".

In this agreement, the FSA is the 'Employer' and CUPE is the 'Union'. The board of directors appoints a Chief Negotiator for each round of bargaining; historically, the FSA Executive Director has typically been the lead, but in the most recent round of bargaining, a board member was appointed as Chief Negotiator under the support of the Executive Director.

This agreement is negotiated, or bargained, in regular iterations – the most recent agreement is a 5-year agreement (2022-27). The current CA can be requested from the FSA Associate Executive Director.

DIRECTORS' AGREEMENT

Every FSA director is required, upon joining the board of directors, to sign the FSA Directors' Agreement and Code of Conduct. A copy of this agreement can be found in Appendix A.

CONSENT TO ACT AS DIRECTOR

As per the BC Societies Act section 42 (4)(a), every FSA director is required, upon joining the board of directors, to sign a Consent to Act as a Director form. This form will be provided to directors by the FSA office.

BOARD COMMUNICATIONS

The Associate Executive Director is the FSA staff person who is the main support for the board in this area.

The FSA uses a combination of in-person and electronic methods for communicating with board members.

Meeting invites occur via Outlook calendar invites and should be responded to so the meeting planner can prepare/adapt as needed.

Emails are regularly sent from the FSA office to the board and should be reviewed and replied to as indicated. The default is to use the email address of the board member provided by BCIT; exceptions can be discussed with the FSA Associate Executive Director as needed.

For sending emails to the whole board please ensure that you are sending to the entire current set of board members and ensure that your confidentiality settings are appropriate to your email content. You can find complete board and staff on the FSA website; contact information can be found on BCIT's active directory. Please ensure you are using up-to-date information when contacting the board or staff.

Board members are also provided a physical FSA mailbox in the FSA office. When coming into the FSA office – for meetings or other reasons – board members are expected to check this mailbox.

It is also expected that the board read the regular emails sent from the FSA office to FSA Tech Reps and to all FSA members (usually in the form of the weekly Friday bulletin). It is important for board members to stay current in the FSA's general activities.

FSA STRATEGIC PLANNING PROCESS

Strategic planning is an organization's process of defining its strategy, or direction, and making decisions on allocating its resources to pursue this strategy. It is usually constrained to a defined period of time and complements the foundational operations of an organization.

The FSA engages in a strategic planning process on a regular basis. Each strategic planning process should draw on current industry best practices for the development of these plans. The recently adopted strategic plan is a 5-year cycle but the cycle length can be changed depending on decisions taken at the time of planning.

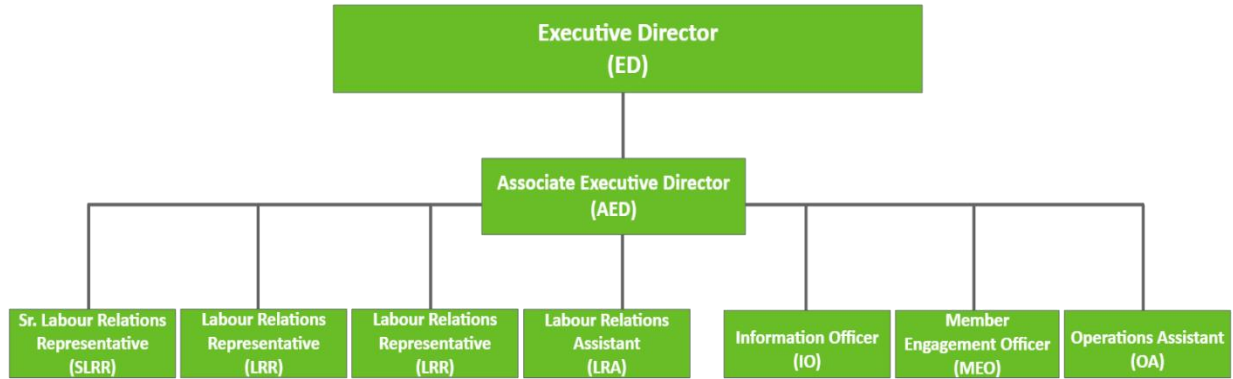

The FSA board of directors is ultimately responsible for setting the strategic plan in consultation with FSA members, staff, and key stakeholders. The process for, and work of, strategic planning is supported by the FSA staff.

FSA CURRENT STRATEGIC PLAN (2021-26)

An overview of the current strategic plan can be located on the FSA website: www.bcifsa.ca/about. A detailed version of the implementation plan can be requested from the FSA office. The board of directors will receive regular reports on the progress of the plan throughout the term of the plan.

BOARD / EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR RELATIONS

The FSA board instructs, through formal communications, the Executive Director (ED) based on the scope of board governance. When giving direction to the ED, the board speaks with one voice. No individual board member, officer, or committee has authority over the ED. Decisions or instructions of individual board members, officers, or committees are not binding on the ED except in instances where the board has specifically authorized such exercise of authority.

The President, as delegated by the Board, is responsible for regular check-ins with the Executive Director.

BOARD / STAFF COMMUNICATIONS

The FSA staff have distinct lines of reporting as outlined in the chart above. Naturally, FSA board members and FSA staff members will interact in a variety of circumstances and situations, however it is important to ensure that the FSA's reporting structure is adhered to when it comes to directing work. FSA board members should not be communicating or meeting with FSA staff members regarding FSA work unless as directed by a decision of the Executive Director or Associate Executive Director for the specified purpose of supporting portions of the FSA's work. All Board authority delegated to staff is directed through the ED, to whom all the other staff members are accountable.

FSA staff members bring work items forward to the FSA board through the FSA's Executive Director or Associate Executive Director.

Additionally, the FSA's Board-Staff Liaison Officer (BSLO) roles, covered in a section below, were specifically created as a means for FSA staff to take forward confidential concerns to "improve the accountability of the Board to the FSA staff".

ROLE OF BOARD MEMBERS

Board members are the stewards of the FSA and are focused on the governance of the FSA, not the management of BCIT. The FSA is both a trade union under BC Labour Relations Code and a Society under the BC Societies Act. Both pieces of provincial legislation result in certain obligations for directors. These requirements and how they apply to the FSA in particular are reflected in the Constitutional statements (Section 1.1 of the FSA Policy Manual) and in the Mission Statement (Section 1.3).

The BC Labour Relations Code refers Internal Union Affairs:

10 (1) Every person has a right to the application of the principles of natural justice in respect of all disputes relating to

- (a) matters in the constitution of the trade union,
- (b) the person's membership in a trade union, or
- (c) discipline by a trade union.

(2) A trade union must not expel, suspend, or impose a penalty on a member or refuse membership in the trade union to a person, or impose any penalty or make any special levy on a person as a condition of admission to membership in the trade union or council of trade unions

- (a) if in doing so the trade union acts in a discriminatory manner, or
- (b) because that member or person has refused or failed to participate in activity prohibited by this Code.

(3) If a trade union charges, levies or prescribes different initiation fees, dues or assessments in respect of a person according to whether the person applies or has applied for membership in the trade union before or after an application for certification by the trade union to represent the person as bargaining agent, the fees, dues or assessments are deemed to be discriminatory for the purpose of subsection (2) (a).

MEMBERSHIP REPRESENTATION

Directors of any society are responsible for representing the interests of the members to an extent consistent with the purposes of the society. As a bargaining agent under the Labour Relations Code, FSA board members have an additional duty to fairly represent members in employment matters concerning the Institute. As a Board, you are entrusted with decisions that affect the employment status of the entire membership. These range from decisions concerning collective bargaining to referring individual cases to arbitration. This responsibility also extends to the on-going conduct of the organization including determining what resources are required to adequately represent members and how those resources will be distributed. The Board is also ultimately responsible for democratic participation in the union in the form of elections, contract ratification, and strike votes.

The principle of fair representation means that a union cannot be discriminatory, arbitrary, or act in bad faith in putting forward a member's case or in representing the interests of an employee in the bargaining unit. From this principle is drawn the responsibility to approach decisions with an open mind, consider all relevant information, act in a consistent manner, and be free from conflict of interest.

The duty of fair representation is balanced by the requirement that the Board approach all decisions, even decisions concerning individual members, with the collective interests of the membership at heart.

The BC Labour Relations Code refers to the Duty of fair representation:

12 (1) A trade union or council of trade unions must not act in a manner that is arbitrary, discriminatory or in bad faith

(a) in representing any of the employees in an appropriate bargaining unit, or
(b) in the referral of persons to employment whether or not the employees or persons are members of the trade union or a constituent union of the council of trade unions.

(2) It is not a violation of subsection (1) for a trade union to enter into an agreement under which
(a) an employer is permitted to hire by name certain trade union members,
(b) a hiring preference is provided to trade union members resident in a particular geographic area, or
(c) an employer is permitted to hire by name persons to be engaged to perform supervisory duties.

(3) An employers' organization must not act in a manner that is arbitrary, discriminatory or in bad faith in representing any of the employers in the group appropriate for collective bargaining.

FIDUCIARY DUTY

Directors of a non-profit organization, registered under the Societies Act, have a fiduciary duty to ensure that the organization and all of its resources are dedicated to the benefit of the membership who are the legal beneficiaries of the organization, as well as its legal owners. The Board must ensure that the society is well managed, is able to meet its obligations, and will be able to meet the goals of its members into the future.

The FSA carries Directors and Officers Liability Insurance to indemnify the individual board members against claims arising from errors and omissions. The insurance is negated if there is proof of a board member acting in anything other than the interests of the membership.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST AND CODE OF CONDUCT

An FSA Policy (1.5.3) outlines the Association's position on Code of Conduct.

Board members have a positive duty to declare a conflict or a potential conflict and then absent themselves from the deliberations over any matter about which they may be in conflict. Moreover, the President has a duty to identify and raise any potential conflict with a board member.

It is critical for board members to ensure they are not perceived as acting on behalf of the FSA board of directors when serving on BCIT committees unless specifically appointed as a representative of the board.

PRIVACY

The FSA is subject to the Personal Information Protection Act (PIPA). Our organizational responsibilities are set out in FSA Policy 2.1.18 (FSA Member Privacy). Under PIPA, board members have a positive duty to only use information about individual members for the purposes for which it is provided and to not require that information be provided or retained for any purpose not declared to members.

The Privacy Officer for the FSA is the Associate Executive Director.

DILIGENCE

Every board member has a responsibility to carry out their duties in a diligent manner. Diligence requires that all information relevant to a decision be considered prior to making that decision. The duty of diligence may largely be satisfied by relying on professional advisors. The Board, nonetheless, must ensure that the interests of the members are brought to bear on the decision. They must also ensure that they themselves and their advisors have access to all of the relevant information. To meet this obligation, board members should be familiar with the FSA constitution, by-laws, and policies, with the FSA-BCIT collective agreement, and with the CUPE-FSA collective agreement.

Board members should examine their meeting packages as soon as they are available, review every document presented for their consideration at a meeting, and seek additional information (if needed) and/or clarification of all significant points in order to make a decision.

AUTHORITY WITHIN THE FSA

The membership has instilled decision-making authority, regarding the business of the Association, with their elected Directors. This authority can be passed to others in the Association, along with the resources to carry out the responsibility. Authority is delegated to the President and the Executive Director who can obligate the Association in its relationship with the Institute. They are given the responsibilities of carrying out the directions of the Board.

Responsibility for contract matters or grievances has been delegated to the Executive Director and staff. The Board, however, has the duty to reflect the best interests of the membership in making a final decision on whether a grievance proceeds to arbitration in the context of the best interests of the membership. While the Board holds both paramount authority and ultimate responsibility within the FSA outside of general membership meetings, this authority should be tempered by a reasonable degree of deference given to professional staff and advisors such as legal counsel or auditors in their fields of expertise.

CONFIDENTIALITY

The Board frequently deals with matters that are confidential in nature. These may include personal information about members, advice from legal counsel and other professionals, and privileged negotiations with the employer or the staff union concerning grievances, collective bargaining, or other matters.

The effective operation of the Board requires that discussions be held in an atmosphere of trust. Board members should not share, beyond the board itself, how individual directors spoke to, or voted on, specific decisions.

Items marked “CLOSED” or “CONFIDENTIAL” carry a much stronger imperative not to disclose any of the discussion outside of the meeting. The disclosure of these items could result in significant harm to the bargaining or legal position of the FSA, and/or significant harm to the individuals who may be involved. Disclosing the position of the FSA on an arbitration to the Institute or its representatives, for example, would be an absolute violation of a Director’s responsibility to the FSA. To preserve the confidential nature of these discussions, written materials circulated at board meetings are normally gathered at the end of the discussion. The minutes of these discussions are “CLOSED” as well and are not available for general perusal.

Additional information on closed/in-camera portions of board meetings is covered in Policy 1.5.4 (Board of Directors Meetings).

BOARD SOLIDARITY

Once made, board decisions are the position of the FSA on any given subject. As directors of the FSA, members of the board are responsible for supporting, acting on, and ensuring compliance with those positions in the interest of the membership. This remains true for board members who may have spoken or voted against the majority. Their responsibility to the Association nonetheless requires that they act to defend the interests of the membership as expressed by the majority of the board.

This principle is supported by the practice of fully exploring issues during board deliberations. Every board member has a right and a duty to ensure that their views are expressed. Doubts and contrary opinions must be shared so the concerns they represent can be addressed and all can move forward knowing that the decision was thoroughly considered if not universally supported.

Once made, the decision belongs not only to the person who brought it forward but to the entire board and the FSA as a whole. Responsibility for the decision must also be shared. What any board member said about any particular issue should not be shared outside of the board meeting. Board members should feel free to bring forward varied and diverse opinions, reflective of our varied and diverse membership, without fear of recrimination. The job of communicating Board decisions is often the responsibility of the President or another delegated person who must carry out and promulgate the decisions.

BOARD OFFICER ROLES

The board includes several officer roles including:

- President
- Vice President
- Secretary

- Treasurer

In practice and as allowed by by-law 9.1.2 the roles of Secretary and Treasurer are combined in one officer.

You can see the role descriptions for these outlined in Appendix B.

These roles may include an allotment of release time for the work. This is determined annually by the board of directors.

In addition to the officer roles the FSA board of directors may have other positions that board members take on leadership for. Currently there are board members in the following capacities:

- Board/Staff Liaison Officers
- Policy Trustee
- Liaison to the FSA Caucus on Applied Research & Advanced Studies (CARAS)
- Liaison to the FSA Caucus on Part-Time Studies (COPTS)
- Liaison to the FSA Equity Caucus (EC)

These roles may include an allotment of release time for the work. This is determined annually by the board of directors.

BOARD/STAFF LIAISON OFFICERS

In April 2018, stemming from a psychological health & safety review of the FSA office, the role of Board/Staff Liaison Officer (BSLO) was created. A terms of reference (TOR) were approved by the board of directors and can be found on our website: www.bcitfsa.ca/about/fsa-policies

The TORs instruct there to be two (2) BSLOs.

Drawing from Section 1 of the TORs, the purpose of the role is “to improve accountability of the Board to FSA staff, to act as part of a system of checks and balances on the power of FSA management, and to provide FSA staff with contact persons on the Board whom staff may approach with questions, concerns, ideas, or needs relating to.” The areas covered by this role are also outlined in the TORs and are summarized as “questions, concerns, ideas, or needs relating to:

- Governance, leadership, and management of the FSA
- Supporting workplace psychological health and safety as described in policy 3.3.6 Psychological Health and Safety in the Workplace.”

BOARD EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The Executive Committee (often referred to as the EC or the “Exec”) of the Board of Directors was created in 2009. The Terms of Reference This committee is not currently active. A terms of reference (TORs) were created in 2009. The TORs were updated at a board meeting on December 4, 2019. The TORs are in Appendix D of this manual.

SUCCESSION PLANNING

BOARD MANAGEMENT & DECISION-MAKING

BOARD MEETINGS, ATTENDANCE, AND RULES OF PROCEDURE

FSA Policy 1.5.4 pertains to ‘Board of Directors Meetings’ and all board members should be familiar with this policy. In addition to being guided by Robert’s Rules of Order, Section 7 of the FSA by-laws outlines the proceedings of the board. All directors should be familiar with this section.

All board members are expected to attend board meetings – ideally in-person but arrangements can be made to attend via teleconference. Calendar invitations will be sent for board meetings and directors are expected to reply with adequate notice.

As per Section 6.3.6 of the FSA by-laws: “A director ceases to be a director on failing to attend three consecutive meetings of the Board.”

The by-laws and all FSA policies can be found on our website: www.bcitfsa.ca/about/fsa-policies

BOARD MEETING DATES

The FSA Board of Directors meets from September – June each year. Meetings are usually held on the third Wednesday of the month with some exceptions and the board also meets two Saturdays a year for strategy sessions and/or workshops. All board meetings typically take place in the FSA boardroom. Day-long workshop session locations vary.

The current year’s dates are posted on the FSA website: www.bcitfsa.ca/eventsmeetings. The dates are set for each upcoming year at the January board meeting. Outlook invitations are sent out for each one. Meetings are typically hybrid unless otherwise stated.

BOARD MEETING MINUTES

The Associate Executive Director (AED) is delegated the duties of the Recording Secretary and is responsible for recording minutes for both the open and closed sessions of board meetings. The minutes are approved by the board as official record at the next scheduled board meeting.

Additionally, approved open minutes of the board of directors are posted in the FSA members portal for FSA members to access.

ANNUAL BOARD PLANNING CALENDAR

In addition to board meetings, board members should plan to attend all FSA general membership meetings and as many FSA Tech Rep meetings as possible. Additionally, board members should make every effort to attend other FSA events (e.g. open houses, consultations, socials, info tables, etc.). The annual calendar for board meetings, general meetings, and Tech Rep meetings is approved by the board in January of each year and the dates are listed on the FSA website:

www.bcitfsa.ca/eventsmeetings

BOARD ORIENTATION

Upon election or appointment to the board, all new directors will be provided with the most current version of this Board Governance Manual and will be invited to an FSA New Board Member Orientation, ideally before their first board meeting. The orientation session will provide a brief overview of the following:

- Positions on the board and their roles
- Board's responsibilities as an employer
- FSA initiatives and on-going matters currently being dealt with at the board level
- Staff support for the board & general office operations

Board members are also encouraged to spend time on the FSA's website to understand the content and resources provided there.

FINANCIALS

FSA BUDGET PROCESS

The FSA's fiscal year runs from July 1 to June 30. In consultation with the Executive Director, President, Treasurer, the Associate Executive Director prepares the draft budget for board approval in March of every year. Once approved by the board, the draft budget is posted on the FSA website and is presented by the Treasurer to the membership for approval at the general membership meeting in April.

FSA CURRENT BUDGET (2023-24)

The current budget is posted on our website: www.bcitfsa.ca/about/fsa-financials

A more detailed version of the budget will be reported on at the meetings of the Board of Directors.

GOVERNANCE

RELEVANT LEGISLATION

In addition to its own constitution, by-laws, and policies the FSA is governed by the “laws of the land”. In this section we have listed a few of the particularly relevant pieces of legislation that the FSA is subject as a reminder that FSA board members must exercise their duties and obligations within the constraints of these laws.

- BC Human Rights Code
- BC Labour Relations Code
- BC Labour Relations Regulation
- BC Societies Act
- BC Lobbyists Transparency Act
- BC Personal Information Protection Act (PIPA)
- BC Occupational Health and Safety Regulation (Work Safe BC)

The FSA board is supported in adhering to it’s obligations by staff including, but not limited to, the Executive Director, Associate Executive Director, and when needed, external professional advisors. As per the FSA Member Privacy Policy (2.1.18), the FSA privacy officer is the Associate Executive Director.

DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS INSURANCE

As previously mentioned, the FSA carries Directors and Officers Liability Insurance to indemnify the individual board members against claims arising from errors and omissions. The insurance is negated if there is proof of a board member acting in anything other than the interests of the membership. The policy will be provided to board members during onboarding and is available upon request from the Associate Executive Director.

BOARD EVALUATION PROCESS

A pilot survey was developed in 2016. This survey needs to be reviewed, amended, and finalized to be used on an annual basis along with a board evaluation process document that outlines the steps and related actions.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT FRAMEWORK

A primary function of the board is to oversee the Executive Director role. The ED, in turn, oversees and is accountable for performance development of all other staff positions.

The Executive Director performance management framework is under review and development.

FSA OPERATIONAL STANDARDS

The FSA's operations are covered by a series of FSA Operational Standards. The FSA Operational Standards represent the formal implementation of the FSA (Board) Policies and sit within the following hierarchy of documents:

1. Legislation
 2. FSA Constitution
 3. FSA Bylaws
 4. FSA Policies
 5. FSA Operational Standards
 6. FSA Standard Operating Procedures

The purpose of the FSA Operational Standards is to clearly establish areas of responsibility and accountability for office personnel and management, as well as establish some basic, guiding standards according to which those responsibilities are met.

While these Operational Standards are not governance documents and is not within the purview of the board, board members who spend time in the office – either as part of their FSA release time or while working on FSA board work may need to access them. A copy can be provided to you by the FSA Information Officer

LABOUR RELATIONS WORK PLANS AND REVIEW

The work plans of the labour relations (LR) services of the FSA are developed by the LR team with the leadership of the Senior Labour Relations Rep (SLRR) and the Executive Director. The board receives a regular SLRR report at its board meetings so that it can be apprised of significant and strategic labour relations matters that the FSA is dealing with.

MEMBER ENGAGEMENT & COMMUNICATIONS PLANS

While the FSA Member Engagement and Communications Plans are not governance documents and are not within the purview of the board, board members will receive regular updates on this work from the Member Engagement Officer and should be familiar with initiatives related to these plans.

FSA PUBLICATIONS

The FSA currently publishes:

- An annual report
- Newsletters (FSA Voice)
- An electronic bulletin (eBulletin) distributed weekly on Fridays
- Educational materials to inform members about their rights

Board members are expected to be familiar with these publications and to support FSA staff by encouraging other FSA members to read them.

FSA PSYCHOLOGICAL HEALTH & SAFETY COMMITMENT

In 2016 the FSA undertook a review of psychological health and safety in the FSA office. The FSA worked with the Canadian Mental Health Association of BC to administer a survey and provide a report. Following the survey results and report, additional information gathering was undertaken by two FSA board members and a report was produced with recommendations in 2017. In 2021, the board enshrined its commitment by adopting Policy 3.3.6 Psychological Health and Safety in the Workplace. The implementation of a psychologically healthy and safe workplace is ongoing work under the responsibility of the Executive Director and Associate Executive Director with board oversight.

GOVERNMENT RELATIONS & PROVINCIAL LOBBYING ACT

The FSA's government relations strategy is led by the Executive Director with support from the President and Member Engagement Officer.

The FSA is registered under the BC Lobbyists Transparency Act. Under this Act, the FSA is required to track and report on the majority of interactions with senior governmental officials – both staff and elected.

It is critical that in your role as an FSA board member, if you are speaking with folks in the provincial government that you first check with the Executive Director to ensure that we are meeting our obligations under the Act.

AFFILIATIONS

CANADIAN ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY TEACHERS (CAUT)

In 2016 the FSA affiliated with the Canadian Association of University Teachers (CAUT). Founded in 1951, CAUT is the national voice for academic staff. Today, representing 70,000 teachers, librarians, researchers, general staff, and other academic professionals, CAUT is an outspoken defender of academic freedom and works actively in the public interest to improve the quality and accessibility of post-secondary education in Canada. To learn about why the FSA joined CAUT check out this post on our blog.

BC FEDERATION OF LABOUR (BCFED)

In 2016 the FSA began a trial membership with the BC Federation of Labour (BCFED). At the end of the two-year trial the FSA board agreed to continue the membership. The BC Federation of Labour represents over 500,000 members from affiliated unions across the province, working in every aspect of the BC economy. It has a long and proud history of fighting for the rights of all working people to a safe workplace and fair wages. The goals of the BCFED are best exemplified by its slogan: "What we desire for ourselves, we wish for all."

NATIONAL UNION OF THE CANADIAN ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY TEACHERS (NUCAUT)

One of the requirements of being members of the BCFED (above) is becoming a member of the Canadian Labour Congress (below). To maximize this opportunity and expand our value in CAUT, the FSA board joined the National Union of CAUT (NUCAUT) which also makes the FSA members of the CLC. The National Union of the Canadian Association of University Teachers (NUCAUT) is the national union of Canada's post-secondary academic staff. NUCAUT promotes the interests of academic staff and seeks to improve the quality and accessibility of post-secondary education in Canada. NUCAUT is committed to equity and opposes harassment and discrimination of any sort. NUCAUT contributes to building and unifying the labour movement by working with labour councils, provincial federations of labour, and other national unions.

CANADIAN LABOUR CONGRESS (CLC)

The FSA is a member of the Canadian Labour Congress (CLC). The CLC is the largest labour organization in Canada, bringing together dozens of national and international unions, provincial and territorial federations of labour and community-based labour councils to represent more than 3 million workers across the country.
